

Steven A. Powless joined CSI in 1987 as Vice President of Corporate Development. Prior to joining, CSI Steve worked 9 years in the Financial Services Division of the Unisys Corporation. In 1989, Steve became Executive Vice President of CSI and in 1992 he was appointed to the CSI Board of Directors. In May of 1993, Steve was named President and Chief Operating Officer of CSI. In August 1999, Steve was named CEO of CSI...only the second person in the history of CSI to hold that position. Steve is also a past president and Director for the Association for Financial Technology. He served on the Paducah Public Library Board of Trustees. He is a Board Member of Connect Kentucky - a state-wide initiative to establish broadband communications throughout the Commonwealth. Steve is a Director of Western Regional Center for Emerging Technologies in Kentucky and member of the Emerging Technology Advisory Team for Western Kentucky Community and Technical College. He has served as Director and Treasurer of the Greater Paducah Economic Development Council and Director with the West Kentucky Technical College Foundation board. Steve is also a graduate of Leadership Paducah and Leadership Kentucky.