I. Exam Outline:
   Fundamentals of Electronic Mail
   Browsers
   The Internet
   The World Wide Web
   Search Engines
   HTML – Including:
     • Internal links
     • External links using absolute and relative pathnames
     • E-mail links
     • Tables and nested tables
     • Forms
     • Cascading Style Sheets

II. Exam Layout:
   Section A - Multiple-choice questions make up 20% of the exam.
   Section B - Short-answer and fill-in-the-blank questions make up 40% of the exam.
   Section C - Web-page design (creating HTML documents) makes up 40% of the exam.

III. Time restraint:
   You will be given 2 hours in which to complete this exam.

IV. Resources Available During Exam:
   A partial list of tags and their corresponding attributes.
   A partial list of styles and their corresponding values.
   An example of a form.

V. Restrictions:
   The use of a computer will not be allowed.

VI. Relevant Material:
   In order to review topics appearing on this exam, see: New Perspectives – HTML and XHTML. by Patrick Carey. 5th Edition

VII. Requirements for passing this exam:
   You must receive a 70% in order to pass this exam.