2015 Regional Educators Rising Conference
Sponsored by: Murray State University Teacher Quality Institute

T-Shirt Competition

Contest Purpose
The purpose of the chapter T-Shirt Competition is to recognize chapter creativity in designing a T-shirt that reflects the school’s spirit and Educators Rising activities in relation to an educational theme.

Eligibility for Entry
A. Entries are limited to one T-shirt per chapter and must be the work of the local chapter’s student members.
B. The registration deadline for the T-Shirt Competition is October 8, 2015.
C. At least one student representative who participated in creating the T-shirt must be registered for the conference and present at the conference to win. Winners who are not registered will be disqualified and new winners will be chosen.

Procedures
A. Prepare at least one T-shirt using the guidelines listed below.
B. T-shirts may be printed and worn at the conference by the chapter representative and/or the entire student group. One shirt must be submitted for judging by a student or advisor during conference registration.

Guidelines
A. The design must fit on a standard T-shirt.
B. The school name, the year, Educators Rising, and the educational theme developed by the designers must be clearly displayed on the T-shirt.
C. The T-shirt should be original, creative, neat, attractive, and adhere to the Educators Rising brand guidelines shown below.
