Cloze Reading Exercise: Fill in the blanks using the following character and setting names: Illyria, Olivia, Orsino, Sebastian, Viola (names may be used more than once) _________________________ and her brother, _________________________, were shipwrecked on the coast of a land called ________________________, a land ruled by a Duke named _________________. The twins, who looked remarkably alike, were separated in the wreck, and neither knew that the other had survived. The Duke was in love with a very rich and noble lady named _______________________, who continually refused the Duke's wooing. In order to stay safe, ________________________ disguised herself as a young man and called herself by the name of ________________________, and in this disguise she acquired employment with Duke _______________________.

_________________________ went to the house of the noblewoman _________________________, on the Duke's orders to convince this noble lady of the Duke's love. The lady, though, thinking that the Duke's young page was far more handsome than the Duke, decided that she wanted to woo the handsome "man" she knew as "________________________." Interestingly, the woman who was disguised as "________________________. " had fallen in love with ______________________.
