

LANA G. PORTER

Lana G. Porter, founder and CEO of L&M Enterprises, has extensive corporate and entrepreneurial experience in the telecom and software areas and currently works as a consultant in the publishing, software and telecom fields. She has served as CEO of Dynix Corp and Ameritech Library Services, the world's largest developer of library software, as well as President of NEAT Wireless. Her telecom career included international and senior executive positions with Ameritech (now AT&T) over a 25 year period.

She has served on the corporate boards of Dynix and epixtech and nonprofit boards of the University of Detroit Mercy, Leadership America, and the National Friends of the Library. She currently sits on the Boards of the Murray State University Foundation and the Leadership Women Board of Dallas, Tx as well as Advisory Boards of the Telecommunications Systems Management Program at Murray State University, Spektrem, LLC, and PassingBye, LLC.

She holds BA and MA degrees from Murray State University and an MBA from The Ohio State University. In 2002 she was named "Distinguished Alumna of Murray State University and in 2008 she was inducted into the premier class of Phi Kappa Phi at Murray State University. She and her husband live in Chicago and Atlanta.