

Full Service for You

from the Office of Sponsored Programs

Summer 2011-2012

A Word from the Director

With a new academic year beginning, I know that many of you are very busy with classes having just started. If you have not already, I would like to invite you to drop in to the Office of Sponsored Programs and meet the staff. We are looking forward to working with those of you who are seeking funding for your scholarly activities and research. We would like very much to help you develop your ideas and your proposals as well as help with the routing and submitting processes. Here is a helpful tip for beginning contact with a sponsor: Always contact the program officer (if allowed to do so) by sending an email asking him or her when would be a good time for you to call them. This allows the program officer to set aside time to focus on the discussion with you and give you direction for your idea. For other helpful hints please contact OSP – We are always glad to help!

Scot Peterson

National Science Foundation Fellowship

Scot Peterson, a Watershed Science graduate student within the College of Science, Engineering, and Technology (CSET), has been awarded a prestigious Graduate Research Fellowship from the National Science Foundation. The fellowship, which is awarded to only 10 percent of applicants, will provide three years of support.

Scot's research is aimed at understanding the biodiversity of a degraded western stream and he will be conducting experiments that will allow land managers to better restore the stream and the surrounding watershed. His work is funded by the High Lonesome Ranch (DeBeque, Colorado), where the research is being conducted, and by Murray's Watershed Studies Institute and CSET. He was also a 2011-2012 recipient of Murray State's Graduate Innovation Assistantship.

Scot received his undergraduate degree in biology from Southern Illinois University-Carbondale, is a U.S. Army veteran, and worked for almost a decade as a research technician at SIU before coming to Murray. He is co-author of eight publications in peer-reviewed journals, and has presented his research at numerous scientific meetings.

The fellowship is funded through the National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship Program. Scot is mentored and will be working alongside Dr. Howard Whiteman during his graduate studies. Murray State University's Office of Sponsored Programs is proud to work with Scott Peterson and Dr. Howard Whiteman in their efforts toward research and external funding!

FUNDING OPPORTUNITY DATABASES

Info Ed/SPIN

InfoEd is a software provider to support Research Administration electronically. How can this help you?! There are two services provided by InfoEd that can benefit the researchers.

SPIN, is the world's largest database of funding opportunities. This database can be accessed as a funding opportunity search engine. The link can be found on the OSP website in the Funding Opportunity section.

GENIUS is a central location for the researcher to house their curriculum vitae details. This takes the form of a profile created by the researcher. Through the profile the researcher also has access to email updates of funding opportunities tailored to their work. To set up a profile or to update a profile contact Wendy Wilson at wwilson17@murraystate.edu or access the user guide on the OSP website in the Funding Opportunities page.

GRC

Grant Resource Center provides a funding opportunity database that includes private and federal announcements. A link to the Grant Search database is located in the Funding Opportunities section on the OSP website. To obtain the username and password required to access the database email msu.sponsoredprograms@murraystate.edu.
