Russell, Rebecca Wilder, Tim Williams, Dwaine Willoughby, Gina Winchester, Janeen Winters, and John Young. Guests: Amber Harris, Staff Congress member-elect, Dr. Josh Jacobs, Chief of Staff; Ann Matheny, Staff Congress member-elect, Phil Schooley, Staff Regent; and Daniel Williams, Staff Congress member-elect.

CALL TO ORDER: Staff Congress President Gina Winchester called the meeting to order at 1:31 p.m. Gina welcomed guests Amber Harris, Ann Matheny, and Daniel Williams, Staff Congress members-elect. Evan O’Neal, the other Staff Congress member-elect, is out-of-town on university business and therefore unable to attend today’s meeting.

REPORTS FROM SPECIAL GUESTS:
Dr. Josh Jacobs, Chief of Staff: Dr. Josh Jacobs thanked everyone for a great school year. The summer campus events have gone well. The programs planned by Janeen Winters’ department, Continuing Education and Academic Outreach, have also been successful. The Governor’s Scholars Program will be held at MSU three more years. Josh reported on the advertising benefit to the university resulting from the national attention during the 2011-2012 basketball season. He encouraged staff to be aware of personal safety and to call Public Safety if any suspicious individuals are noticed on campus.

At its June meeting, the Board of Regents approved the budget and the formation of Budget Planning and Review Teams which will be composed of individuals from across campus. He explained the structure of the teams. Names to be considered for appointment to the teams must be submitted to Dr. Dunn by July 13. Persons do not have to be members of Staff Congress to be considered for the teams. Additional information may be found on the web page for the President’s Office. Josh answered questions. Additional questions may be emailed to him.

Jerry O’Bryan and Chuck Plummer requested an update on the question they asked at a previous Staff Congress meeting concerning repair and replacement of Facilities Management vehicles. Josh said he has spoken with Tom Denton, Vice President of Finance, and will evaluate the situation with Dickie Turner, Assistant Director of Transportation.

Sheri Riddle said that a staff member has requested that she ask why some employees have not reached the mid-point of the pay range although this is the third year of the compensation study pay implementation. The person would like to know how pay was determined. Josh replied that he was not involved in that decision and explained his understanding of the pay implementation established by the compensation study. He said an employee can present related questions to his supervisor and can request the supervisor ask Human Resources to conduct a pay evaluation.

Gina Winchester added that when Staff Congress requested the compensation study, the consultants told MSU that although the goal was to bring everyone’s pay to the mid-level, the university budget did not have the funds to do so. In addition, the 4% across-the-board raise affected the pay percentages.

Josh reported that in December, the Board of Regents voted to wait to make a decision about whether to demolish or restore Ordway, in order to allow time for a possible donor or other outside funding to be determined. Because no funding has been discovered, the Board of Regents will move to raze the building once it is vacated. The bricks will possibly be used for a monument. A decision has not been made about the use of the land the building occupies. No plans currently exist to raze any other campus buildings. The old Richmond Hall will be used for overflow. Elizabeth Hall is on schedule to be used by students this fall. Josh explained the funding sources for the renovations and building demolitions.

Staff Regent Report: Staff Congress President Gina Winchester distributed copies of the Staff Regent Report on behalf of Phil Schooley who was unable to attend today’s meeting. Gina highlighted some items on the report.

Anyone interested in serving on the teams may contact the new Staff Congress President who will be elected later in today’s meeting.

Gina reported that she discussed with Tom Denton the 2011-2012 Staff Congress budget and explained the various factors for the shortfall and ideas for savings next year. Mr. Denton said the 2012-2013 budget has already been submitted to the Board of Regents. He might be able to approve the $1,000 requested by Staff Congress as voted on at the May Staff Congress meeting. The 2013-2014 Staff Congress budget can be re-evaluated before it is submitted for approval. Mr. Denton will attend Staff Congress meetings or will meet with representatives outside of meetings to answer questions, whichever is preferred by Staff Congress.

Orville reported that a Staff Congress member has missed eight Staff Congress during the 2011-2012 fiscal year. The Executive Officers to be elected at today’s meeting can discuss how to address the absences.

NEW BUSINESS:
Election of Staff Congress Officers:
Orville Herndon read the requirements for officers as stated in the Staff Congress Bylaws. He read the names of those who had notified him prior to today’s meeting of their intent to run for Executive Officer positions. He asked for additional nominations. The following candidates ran for positions at today’s meeting.

Treasurer: Debbie Plummer submitted her name for candidacy prior to today’s meeting. Orville asked if there were any other nominations. There were none. Lana Jennings moved that the nominations cease. Christian Cruce seconded, and the motion carried.

Vice-President: Laura Lohr Dziekonski submitted her name for candidacy prior to today’s meeting. Orville asked if there were any other nominations. There were none. Marion Hale made a motion that nominations cease. Debbie Plummer seconded, and the motion carried.

President: Tressa Ross and John Young submitted their names for candidacy prior to today’s meeting. Orville asked if there were any other nominations. There were none. Laura Lohr Dziekonski made a motion that nominations cease. Marion Hale seconded, and the motion carried.

Marion Hale and Lana Jennings distributed ballots, then collected completed ballots and tallied them. Orville asked if there were any online votes. There were none.

Cathy Bazar asked if the voting for the officers can be conducted separately so that if a person wasn’t elected to one position, he could then run for another. Orville said that Staff Congress can develop a proposal to do this, if the Congress desires.

Tressa Ross asked if members attending online may vote in the officer elections. Orville replied that voting online is possible. The two election tellers would both view any online votes and record them. He said that Robert’s Rules of Order addresses online voting. Debbie Plummer suggested that the Congress may want to purchase the tenth edition of Robert’s Rules of Order. Daniel Williams looked online and reported that the tenth edition of Robert’s Rule of Order has a section addressing online voting. Orville added that the newly elected Staff Congress President has one week to appoint a Parliamentarian.

The vote tally was complete and Orville read the results.
