Questions and discussion followed regarding access to the enrollment forms and benefit guide for employees whose jobs do not involve computer usage. Staff Congress President John Young assigned the topic to the Working Conditions Committee. Jessica Evans noted that this may also be a topic for the University-wide Insurance and Benefits Committee.

Staff Regent Report: Staff Regent Phil Schooley said Dr. Miller regrets not being able to attend today’s Staff Congress meeting due to visiting extended campuses today. Phil added that he, Faculty Regent Dr. Renee Fister, and Student Regent Jeremiah Johnson have previously accompanied Dr. Miller to visit extended campuses and to meet with the corresponding community leaders.

The presidential search committee will be on campus in September. The Board of Regents retreat is scheduled for September 5 and the board meeting is scheduled for September 6. Phil answered questions. Orville Herndon asked that Board of Regents members visit the campus throughout the year in addition to the quarterly board meetings. Dr. Renee Fister responded that she has arranged on-campus lecture sessions to be presented by various regents. Students, staff, and faculty may attend these lectures which will address the QEP by connecting learning and living. Additionally, a few years ago, Dr. Jay Morgan guided Board of Regents members on an unannounced tour of various campus work areas.

John Young will serve as the ex-officio member and will set a meeting date for the committee

Debbie Plummer asked about the Grievance Committee listed on the committee assignment list. John Young said that committee is included in the Staff Congress Bylaws and is to meet if someone has a grievance.

John Young noted that the textbook scholarship committee has not been included in the Congress Bylaws. He asked if the committee should be added to the bylaws. Orville Herndon responded that the scholarship committee does need to be added to the Bylaws.
