Murray State Student and Faculty Perspectives on Qualities of Successful Racers...

- Attend all classes every day
- Complete assignments
- Develop proper study habits
- Take ownership of their learning
- Develop Self-discipline
- Teachable
- Engaged
- Prepared
- Manage time wisely
- Ask questions
- Good reading skills
- Organized
- Good self-esteem
- Have balance between school and recreation
- Persistent
- Attentive
- Involved
- Inquisitive
- On-time

- Believe in themselves
- Believe they belong
- Listen well
- Complete all readings
- Place academics first for every class
- Care about academic work
- Display persona of diligence
- Positive attitude
- Read emails from faculty
- Read syllabus
- Study daily
- Follow instructions
- Take notes
- Inform professors about anticipated absences
- Ask for help
- Manage daily life
- Self-starter
- Pay attention

- Do not procrastinate
- Get to know instructors
- Follow through
- Willing to try even when challenged
- Willing to ask questions
- Motivated
- Rested
- Well fed
- Focused
- Able to set boundaries
- Become comfortable talking to faculty
- Take initiative
- Live on campus
- Get involved in co-curricular events
- Confirm their understanding
- Self-assess
- Have Vision