ANT 355 - Pottery and People

ANT 355 Pottery and People (3). Course will explore the diverse ways that people have and continue to incorporate ceramics into their daily lives. Topics that will be examined include resource acquisition strategies, craft production, distribution, and use of pottery. Examples will draw on modern ethnographic and archaeological case studies involving potters. Analysis of pottery will focus on the approaches to the classification of ceramics, inferences about their production and social contexts from archaeological specimens, ethnographic analogy, and experimental studies. Prerequisite: ARC 150 or permission of instructor. (Same as ARC 355.)
