THIRD ANNUAL CONVERSATION
& Dessert
FEATURING
Mara Keisling’s
Radically Candid View on Transgender Equality

MARA KEISLING is the founding and current executive director of the National Center for Transgender Equality. She is a transgender-identified woman and a parent. As one of the nation’s leading voices for transgender equality, Keisling has appeared on news outlets and is regularly quoted in hundreds of national and local print and broadcast media. Since NCTE was founded in 2003, the organization has been part of coalition efforts that have won significant advances in transgender equality. Keisling is a graduate of Penn State University and did her graduate work at Harvard University in American Government. She has almost 25 years of professional experience in social marketing and opinion research.

Tuesday, Sept. 16, 2014
7:30 p.m.
Curris Center Ballroom One
FREE ADMISSION
OPEN TO EVERYONE

Following Keisling’s presentation, the CONVERSATION will be moderated by Abigail French, director, MSU Women’s Center, and include Dr. Renae Duncan, Murray State associate provost for undergraduate education, as a panelist.

SPONSORED BY:
Department of Political Science and Sociology
Gender and Diversity Studies
Health Services
MSU Alliance
Office of Multicultural Affairs
Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs
School of Nursing and Health Professions
Women’s Center

QUESTIONS:
Jody Cofer Randall
Murray State LGBT program coordinator
jcofer@murraystate.edu
270.809.5040

Equal education and employment opportunities M/F/D, AA employer