Finding the right Funding Announcement at the right time is crucial to good funding planning. Our Subject Mailing Lists continue to grow and faculty and staff are finding the right opportunities for them. We now have over 100 faculty and staff receiving our emails concerning funding opportunities in their areas.

We have changed the name to one of our lists. The Arts/Humanities list is now the Arts/Humanities/Social Sciences lists. The change merely reflects where we were sending the information and clarifies to those of you in the Social Sciences which list provides opportunities in your area.

To sign up for the Subject Mailing Lists simply call OSP or send an email to msu.sponsoredprograms@murraystate.edu and tell us which lists you would like to be on. Some disciplines seem to cross the Subject lines. I will be happy to talk with you if you have any questions about which list(s) you should be on.

Dr. Howard Whiteman

NSF Research in Undergraduate Institutions

Dr. Howard Whiteman, Professor within the Department of Biological Sciences and Director of the Watershed Studies Institute in the Jesse D. Jones College of Science, Engineering and Technology, has been awarded funding from the National Science Foundation. The grant, worth a total of $459,998, includes two subcontracts to Valdosta State University and the Rocky Mountain Biological Laboratory, where part of the research will be conducted over the next four years.

Dr. Whiteman is studying how size variation in a top predator affects both the production of new predators and their effects on other members of the food web. He is using salamanders as the top predator in his research, in part because they provide an excellent model system for the questions he is studying and also because the proposed research is built upon more than two decades of research on salamander ecology within Dr. Whiteman’s lab.

During the next four summers, Dr. Whiteman and his collaborator, Dr. Cy Mott of Valdosta State University, will conduct observational and experimental studies for six weeks at the Hancock Biological Station and four weeks at the Rocky Mountain Biological Laboratory in Colorado. Three undergraduate students, one from Murray State, one from Valdosta State, and one from Kentucky State University, will be collecting data with Drs. Whiteman and Mott each summer. Additionally, students at Murray State and Valdosta State will be conducting research in the lab all year round and analyzing data collected during the project. All of the involved students will have opportunities to present their research at scientific meetings.

Those deadlines marked by an asterisk (*) are tentative. In some cases, these are specific dates that may change depending on the timing of the deadline notices and in others, we have listed just the month during which a deadline is expected. Deadlines marked by a double plus sign (++) are target dates.

1. Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education - Improving Educator Quality State Grant Program Year 13

This Request for Proposal (RFP) solicits offers from universities to serve as the lead in partnerships to provide professional development to Kentucky's teachers. This program awards grants to partnerships that deliver research-based professional development programs to K-12 teachers. To be eligible, a partnership must include a postsecondary institution’s school of arts and sciences and its teacher preparation program, as well as a high-needs local school district (as defined by the U.S. Census Bureau’s poverty statistics). The program enables states to fund training for teachers and administrators in any core academic subject. Common Core Standards professional development must be included. August 1, 2014 Intent to Submit Proposal Due, August 22, 2014 Deadline for Submitting Questions Regarding Proposals. September 19, 2014 Proposals Due (Must be received at the Council on Postsecondary Education by 4:30 p.m., ET)

2. The following sources of research funding are available through the Kentucky Academy of Science:

Marcia Athey and Botany Funds Proposal Deadline: November 15

Special Research Program Proposal Deadline: November 15

Undergraduate Research Program Proposal Deadline: November 15
How we serve YOU!

SUBJECT MAILING LISTS

The Office of Sponsored Programs is always looking for ways to better serve you. Therefore, we are providing subject mailing lists to those that are interested. The mailing lists are divided up into subject areas to ensure you are receiving information about opportunities that apply to your work.

- Arts/Humanities/Social Sciences
- Education
- Health/Mental Health
- Science/Technology/Engineering/Mathematics
- Economic/Community Development
- Agriculture
- Nursing
- International

To subscribe to a list please email msu.sponsoredprograms@murraystate.edu. In the email subject line please type the area of your choice from the list above. You are welcome to subscribe to more than one list.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITY DATABASES

Info Ed/SPIN is a software provider to support Research Administration electronically. How can this help you? There are two services provided by InfoEd that can benefit the researchers.

SPIN, is the world’s largest database of funding opportunities. This database can be accessed as a funding opportunity search engine. The link can be found on the OSP website in the Funding Opportunity section.

GENIUS is a central location for the researcher to house their curriculum vitae details. This takes the form of a profile created by the researcher. Through the profile the researcher also has access to email updates of funding opportunities tailored to their work. To set up a profile or to update a profile contact Wendy Wilson at wwilson17@murraystate.edu or access the user guide on the OSP website in the Funding Opportunities page.

Grant Resource Center provides a funding opportunity database that includes private and federal announcements. A link to the Grant Search database is located in the Funding Opportunities section on the OSP website. To obtain the username and password required to access the database email msu.sponsoredprograms@murraystate.edu.
