1. Organization and Administration

1.1 History of Murray State University
Murray State Normal School, created by the Kentucky General Assembly in 1922, admitted its first students in September 1923. In 1926, when the General Assembly granted the institution authority to confer baccalaureate degrees, it was renamed Murray State Normal School and Teachers College. The college was accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in 1928 and received authority to offer liberal arts and pre-professional courses in 1930, when the name was changed to Murray State Teachers College. In 1948 the name was changed to Murray State College. In 1966 the General Assembly authorized the Board of Regents to change the name to Murray State University.

1.2 The Murray State University Shield
The Murray State Shield, the official seal of the university, is taken from the heraldic coat of arms of the family of William Murray, Earl of Mansfield and Lord Chief Justice of Great Britain in 1756. The Earl of Mansfield is an ancestor of the Murray family from whom the city and university take their names. The shield itself is blue with a double gold border. The three stars represent hope, endeavor, and achievement. This emblem appears on diplomas, stationery, and other official university documents.

1.3 The Murray State University Alma Mater

In the heart of Jackson’s Purchase
'Neath the sun’s warm glow
Is the home of Murray State
Finest place we know.

CHORUS:
May we cherish thy traditions
Hold thy banner high
Ever guard thy name and glory
Live and do, or die.

Though we leave thy walls forever
Many miles go hence
May our love for Alma Mater
Only have commenced.

CHORUS

Words by A. B. Austin

2.2 Sexual Harassment Policy

Murray State University is committed to eliminating illegal discrimination. Sexual harassment is in direct conflict with this commitment and will not be tolerated.

The goals of this policy are both preventive and remedial. The accomplishment of these goals is the responsibility of the entire university community.

Sexual harassment is prohibited and defined by federal and state law, and university policy.

The complete sexual harassment policy, including definition, prevention, formal and informal resolution of complaints and sanctions for violation, can be read here: http://www.murraystate.edu/HeaderMenu/Administration/OfficeOfEqualOpportunity/AffirmativeActionSexualHarassmentAndGrievances/SexualHarassmentPolicy.aspx.

2.3 Code of Conduct

This Statement of Ethical Principles and Code of Conduct (Statement) enumerates principles and standards deemed to be particularly worthy of emphasis in carrying out the work of Murray State University. It is intended to remind all employees of their responsibility for the University’s continued success and well-being, and to foster an environment characterized by ethical behaviors, good stewardship of public resources, and transparent processes.

Accordingly, this Statement is applicable to all employees of the University including the President, faculty, staff, and student employees. The application of the Statement to an employee is not dependent upon the source, e.g., grant, of an employee’s salary. Moreover, because a purpose of this Statement is to instill further a culture of ethical behavior at Murray State University, its principles and standards of conduct should guide volunteers as they donate work services to the University even though they are not employees.

2.4 Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. This act can be read here: http://www.murraystate.edu/Academics/RegistrarsOffice/FERPAPrivacyAct.aspx.

2.5 Intellectual Property Policy

Murray State University embraces the multiple missions of a state supported university: teaching, research and support of the public interest. The university encourages research and scholarship and recognizes that intellectual properties may arise from the scholarly activities of the university. While many intellectual properties are best disseminated by publication and placement in the public domain, there are a significant number that are most effectively handled by protection under the intellectual property laws (e.g., patenting and copyright) and licensing (or other transfer) to private sector entities, with attendant financial considerations. It is therefore important to establish clear policies regarding the ownership, commercialization and financial rewards resulting from the creation of such intellectual property. Accordingly, this intellectual property policy (IP Policy) is designed to: 1) establish ownership criteria for intellectual property developed by members of the university community and to resolve ownership questions if such arise; 2) define the responsibilities, rights and privileges of those involved; and 3) develop basic guidelines for the administration of the IP Policy. The full policy can be read here: http://www.murraystate.edu/HeaderMenu/Offices/HumanResources/MSUPersonnelPoliciesAndProceduresManual/intellectualproperty.aspx
