

Your Money Beyond the Headlines

A Special Live Event

Cut through the noise. Focus on what you can control.

The economy can look strong in the headlines while higher grocery and gas prices, borrowing costs, and workplace changes with AI affect everyday life. Add viral financial advice and “get rich quick” promises on social media, and it can be difficult to understand what is happening or know what to trust.

This special event will help you look beyond the headlines and focus on the financial decisions within your control.

This is a conversation you need to be a part of.

Join us as we break down today’s conflicting financial signals and what they may mean for your money:

Wednesday, October 7th, 2026

Scan the QR code or click your preferred session time to register: 12 PM ET or 3 PM ET

We will discuss:

- The disconnect between economic headlines and everyday expenses
- The potential financial impact of borrowing costs and workplace changes
- How to evaluate financial information and social media advice

You’ll learn:

- How economic conditions may affect your finances
- What you can do to navigate uncertainty
- How to build a plan aligned with your financial goals

Open to all employees and household members.

Hosted by MSA as part of your Financial Well-being benefit.

This content is for informational purposes only and does not guarantee eligibility for the program or its services. Information provided in this document is for informational purposes only and is not intended to offer specific personalized investment, financial planning, tax, legal or accounting advice. We recommend that you consult an attorney, tax advisor or accountant regarding your unique circumstances.