The Board of Regents of Murray State University endorses the concept of shared authority and responsibility in the governance of the institution. A university is comprised of many persons with knowledge and skills in diverse fields. Each member of the University community can make a special contribution to the vigor and progress of Murray State. Shared authority and shared responsibility tap these resources for the good of the University. Pursuant to the concept of shared authority and responsibility, the Board of Regents of Murray State University by this document recognizes and sets forth the role of the Faculty Senate, Academic Council, Staff Congress, Student Government Association, and the University Standing Committees, in relationship to University governance.

Policies governing University governance bodies, whether characterized as the power to propose, formulate, review, determine or as otherwise stated, shall be considered as advisory in nature to the President of the University. In those cases where a component part of the governance structure is instructed herein to make recommendations to other individuals or groups, a copy of this recommendation shall be delivered to the President or to an appropriate Vice President as the President may direct.

Purpose

This policy establishes and/or clarifies the role of the Faculty Senate, Academic Council, Staff Congress, Student Government Association and the University Standing Committees in relationship to the University governance system of Murray State University. This policy is designed to bring the special talents and expertise of the various elements of the University Community to bear on policy matters of vital interest. University governance bodies shall be considered as being advisory in nature.

Authority

The Legislature of the state of Kentucky has vested the primary responsibility for the governance of Murray State University in the Board of Regents. The Board of Regents has, in turn, delegated to the President of the University the responsibility of ensuring that the affairs of the University are handled in a manner which is consistent with the policies of the University. This policy will serve the purpose of ensuring University-wide participation in the decision-making process on those matters which involve faculty, staff and student responsibility and interest.

The component parts of the governance structure addressed herein (Faculty Senate, Academic Council, Staff Congress, Student Government Association, and University Standing Committees) may make recommendations to the President of the University on those matters wherein they are empowered to act unless otherwise directed by the president.

Amendment and Review

Periodically, no less than every three years and no more than every year, the governance system, or any part thereof, shall be formally reviewed by the Faculty Senate, the Student Senate, the Staff Congress, and the University vice presidents. Following the review, amendments or corrections may be recommended to the President of the University. This provision shall not preclude the Board of Regents from making changes in the governance system at any time; nor does it preclude ad hoc recommendations to the President by any individual or group.

6.2     SUBJECT:    THE FACULTY SENATE

Date Adopted:            October 24, 1981
Revisions Adopted:      November 15, 1986
                              November 14, 1992

The Faculty Senate is empowered by the Board of Regents to act for the University faculty, with delegated authority to advise the President as to the formulation and/or review of policies regarding the educational functions of the university. The Faculty Senate is not precluded from making recommendations to the University Academic Council.

The composition of the Faculty Senate shall be in accordance with its constitution.

The Faculty Senate may:

1. Initiate and/or review policies relating to University academic matters and make recommendations to the University Academic Council. A copy of this recommendation shall simultaneously be delivered to the President and the Provost;
2. Initiate and/or review policies relating to the rights and responsibilities of faculty members incident to their employment by the University. Any recommendation pursuant to this provision shall be made to the President and the Provost;
3. Initiate and/or review changes and additions to the Faculty Handbook. Any recommendation pursuant to this provision shall be made to the President and the Provost;
4. Receive, when deemed appropriate by the president, any alteration of a proposal acted upon by the Faculty Senate prior to its transmission to the Board of Regents; and
5. Act as the official channel of faculty opinion on all matters which have a bearing on academic excellence.

The Faculty Senate will formulate its own rules and procedures consistent with its constitution, the policies of the University and the laws of the Commonwealth. All meetings of the Faculty Senate shall be open and the Faculty Senate may request the opinion of any individual or group concerning any matter before the Senate provided that any individual or group may decline to give an opinion if to do so would constitute a conflict of interest, or preempt orderly administrative procedures. Members of standing committees shall be selected in accordance with the Bylaws of the Faculty Senate.

6.3     SUBJECT:     UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC COUNCIL

Date Approved:            October 24, 1981
Revisions Approved:    November 15, 1986; November 14, 1991; June 30, 1999

The University Academic Council is an agency created to assist the faculty and the administration in the discharge of their responsibility for academic programs. All matters relating to academic programs may be considered by the Academic Council, whether such matters are brought to that body by the President, other administrative officials, the Faculty Senate, and/or Student Senate. The University Academic Council may make recommendations to the President of the University on all programs, policies, and other academic matters formulated, reviewed, or considered unless otherwise directed by the President.

The University Academic Council may make recommendations to the Board of Regents through the President of the University in cases where the Board's approval is required. In cases where the Board of Regents' approval is not required, the University Academic Council's actions and/or recommendations shall be transmitted to the President.

The University Academic Council shall consist of:

1. Two faculty members elected by each college faculty and the library faculty (for staggered three-year terms);
2. The academic deans; the Dean of Admission, and the Dean of continuing education;
3. Six faculty members, not more than two of whom may be from any one college or the library, selected by the Faculty Senate in accordance with the Bylaws;
4. A student member from each college selected by the Student Senate in accordance with its Bylaws; two graduate students selected in accordance with the Bylaws of the Academic Council; and
5. The Provost who shall serve as chair.

Members of the standing committees shall be selected in accordance with the Bylaws of the Academic Council subject to the provision that the Graduate Studies Committee be selected from members of the graduate faculty and in addition shall include the same two graduate students selected in accordance with 4. above who shall be voting members of the Graduate Studies Committee.

The University Academic Council may:

1. Formulate and/or review all University academic policies;
2. Formulate and/or review all University policies concerning the University libraries, the computer center, and other segments of the University which serve to support academic programs;
3. Formulate and/or review University and program admission requirements;
4. Formulate and/or review new degree programs and all major changes in existing programs;
5. Review proposals for academic reorganization; and
6. Consider all other academic matters as requested by the Faculty Senate, the Student Senate, and the academic officers of the University. A copy of any report or recommendation shall be simultaneously delivered to the President of the University.

The Academic Council will formulate its own rules and procedures consistent with the policies of the University and the laws of the Commonwealth. All meetings of the Academic Council shall be open and the Academic Council may request the opinion of any individual or group concerning any matter before the Council provided that any individual or group may decline to give an opinion if to do so would constitute a conflict of interest, or preempt orderly administrative procedures.

6.4     SUBJECT:    STAFF CONGRESS

The Staff Congress is authorized by the Board of Regents to act for the University staff, with delegated authority to advise the President in matters involving the formulation and/or review of policies regarding staff concerns.

The Staff Congress shall consist of a maximum of 30 representatives:

1. Each category has six representatives, with two being elected annually from each of the following employment categories, as defined by Human Resources;
  - a. Group A - Secretarial/Clerical
  - b. Group B - General
  - c. Group C - Facilities Management
  - d. Group D - Executive/Managerial/Professional;
  - e. Group E – At-Large
  - f. Two of the six at-large staff representatives will be elected, annually, except in a year when a Breathitt Veterinary Center representative is elected; at that time one at-large representative is elected; and
  - g. One staff representative from the Breathitt Veterinary Center is elected every third year.

All regular staff employees who have one or more years continuous employment, as of the date of the election, with Murray State University are eligible to run, in one constituency, for election to the Staff Congress.

Each Staff Congress representative will serve a three-year term. Terms of office are staggered so that one third are elected each year, as determined by the Credentials and Elections Committee. Terms of office begin with the regularly scheduled July meeting each year.

The Staff Congress may:

1. Study and determine responsibly those policies and objectives that the Staff Congress feels will best fulfill the needs, concerns, and interests of the staff;
2. Promote better cooperation among the administration, faculty, students and staff;
3. Make recommendations to the University administration and the Staff Regent, and to the Board of Regents on matters affecting staff;
4. Create a stronger bond within the staff by providing a means to solicit and express opinions; and
5. Act as the official channel of staff opinion on all matters of staff concern.

The Staff Congress will formulate its own rules and procedures consistent with its Constitution and Bylaws, the policies of the University and the laws of the Commonwealth. All meetings of the Staff Congress shall be open and the Staff Congress may request the opinion of any individual or group concerning any matter before the Congress provided that any individual or group may decline to give an opinion if to do so would constitute a conflict of interest, or preempt orderly administrative procedures. Members of standing committees shall be selected in accordance with the Bylaws of the Staff Congress.

6.5     SUBJECT:     STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The officially organized body governing all students and student organizations at Murray State University shall be the Student Government Association. The Student Government Association shall be composed of the Student Senate, the Judicial Board, the Campus Activities Board, Residential College Association and any other boards as agencies created in accordance with the Bylaws.

The Student Senate shall be the governing body of the Student Government Association and shall have the power to pass resolutions, bills, rules, and regulations necessary for the general welfare of the University and to implement and maintain any programs consistent with Student Government Association purposes. Provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed as giving to the Student Senate the power to alter or supersede state law, University policies, or administrative rules and regulations.

The Student Senate shall consist of:

1. Three elected Senators from each academic college of the University and the School of Agriculture, two freshman Senators, eight Senators elected at large and two Senators from each Residential College who, with the members of the Executive Council shall have the right to vote;
2. Two faculty advisors; and
3. One administrative advisor.

Any full time student or part-time student (paying the part-time student activity fee and enrolled in seven to 11 hours for undergraduates or five to eight hours for graduate students) at Murray State University shall have the privilege of seeking office in any branch of the Student Government Association. Part-time students are not eligible to run for or hold any of the top four executive offices. In order to be a member of the Student Senate one must maintain at least a 2.0 cumulative point standing during the term of office. The freshman Senators shall at the time of election be in their first or second semester at Murray State.

The Student Senate may:

1. Promote the welfare, growth, and development of student life in an environment of academic excellence;
2. Represent the students in those phases of administrative effort in which student participation has been approved and which are not otherwise specifically addressed by law, Board policy, or administrative rules and regulations; and
3. Provide a means of promoting cooperative efforts for the general welfare of the University community.

The Student Senate will formulate its own rules and procedures consistent with the policies of the University and the laws of the Commonwealth. All meetings of the Student Senate shall be open and the Student Government Association may request the opinion of any individual or group concerning any matter before the Senate provided that any individual or group may decline to give an opinion if to do so would constitute a conflict of interest, or preempt orderly administrative procedures. Members of standing committees shall be selected in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Student Senate.

6.6     SUBJECT:     UNIVERSITY STANDING COMMITTEE SYSTEM

Date Approved:            October 24, 1981
Revisions Approved:    November 15, 1986; November 14, 1992; December 10, 1999; March 11, 2003;
                                  December 10, 2010; August 26, 2011; March 2, 2012; June 10, 2016;
                                  December 3, 2021.

The President's Office shall keep and maintain a current list of all standing committees and other university-wide committees. At a minimum, the list shall contain the name, special instructions, purpose and membership of each committee.

Elections to standing committees shall be held prior to May 1 of each year. Faculty and staff representatives to a committee, unless otherwise specified, shall be elected for three-year terms, beginning July 1, with the exception of the University Tenure Committee whose members begin their terms October 1. The terms of the elected faculty and staff representatives to each committee shall be staggered so that one third of each group is elected each year.

The election of faculty representatives shall be conducted by the Faculty Senate. Vacancies in elective positions shall be filled by appointment unless another provision has been made by the electorate for that position. The appointment shall be by the Dean for an academic college/school representative; the Dean of Libraries for a library representative; the Provost/Vice President for Academic Affairs for a representative normally selected by the whole faculty; and the President of the Faculty Senate, the Staff Congress, or the Student Government Association for representatives selected by those bodies.

When student membership is specified for a committee, those student members shall be elected by the Student Government Association for one year terms from May 1 to May 1 on the basis of submitted applications.

Ex officio members of the committees, unless otherwise specified, shall not have voting privileges.

The Vice President of the Faculty Senate and the Vice President of the Staff Congress shall ensure that these standing committees are convened for an organizational meeting not later than September 15 of each year unless otherwise specified. Each committee shall choose its own chair from its membership, exclusive of ex-officio members. The chair has full voting privileges.

Each committee shall have the authority to form sub-committees for the purposes contained in the charge to that committee and to invite other members of the University community to meet with the committee.

All committee meetings shall be open except for executive sessions.

Each committee shall keep minutes of each meeting and shall transcribe and maintain those minutes.

6.7     SUBJECT:   MSU FACULTY SENATE CONSTITUTION*PREAMBLE

The Murray State University Faculty Organization, acting for and with the faculty of Murray State University, does hereby establish the Faculty Senate as a representative body through which the faculty may more effectively exercise its duties and responsibilities. The faculty has written this constitution in order to provide a more creative environment at MSU by expanding the range and diversity of what educational groups can know, evaluate, and deal with; increasing the faculty's ability to understand other components of University life and develop interdisciplinary communications; increasing the faculty's ability to deal with any pertinent issue in such a way that the resulting consequences express the faculty's character and fulfill the purposes of the university; and increasing the faculty's capacity to integrate into its own functioning a greater diversity of experiences so that all encounters become a source of enrichment and strength for the students, faculty and the university.

Article I - Name

The agency for the exercise of the responsibilities herein described shall be known as the Murray State University Faculty Senate.

Article II - Purposes and Responsibilities

The purpose of the Faculty Senate is to act as an effective faculty assembly which can, within the laws applicable to MSU, enter into a partnership for shared responsibility and cooperative action among the student, faculty, administration, Board of Regents, and other elements of the university. In accordance with this purpose, the Faculty Senate shall function as an agency:

- A. to promote the growth and general welfare of the university;
- B. to consider and express faculty judgment and recommendations on University affairs, including personnel, financial and academic matters, as the Senate deems appropriate and necessary; and
- C. to afford avenues and procedures whereby communications within the University may flow freely, fully and systematically, and to accept and share responsibility for creating, maintaining, and protecting a University environment conducive to the growth of scholarship, learning, teaching, research, service, and respect for human dignity and rights.

The Faculty Senate may, as it deems appropriate, consider and commend actions pertaining to all matters described in this article.

Article III – Membership in the Faculty Senate

- A. Faculty eligible for membership in the Senate are those members of the instructional/research staff who have been employed on a full-time basis at Murray State University for at least ONE academic year and whose major regular assignment is instruction of students, including those with released time for research. Chairs of departments are faculty if they have no other administrative title and if a part of their regular assignment is instruction of students. Members of the professional library faculty are faculty if they have no other administrative title. The Senate may, by two-thirds majority, waive this requirement for membership in the Senate for any individual. (Amended January, 1989)
- B. The Senate shall consist of one delegate elected from and by the faculty of each academic department, including the library faculty; five delegates elected at large, not more than two of whom shall be from any one college or academic division; and the faculty member of the Board of Regents as an ex officio, nonvoting member. (Amended April 23, 1986)

The faculty representative to the Board of Regents (faculty regent) shall inform the Board of Regents of faculty concerns. The faculty regent shall communicate, in a timely manner, to the faculty and the Faculty Senate issues of the board involving and/or affecting faculty (Amended April 18, 1995)

C.

The election of faculty Senators shall be by secret ballot among the members of the unit from which they are selected. Elections for at-large Senators shall be conducted among the faculty by the Senate. The elections of departmental and at-large Senators shall be arranged so that, as nearly as possible, one half of the Senators will be elected each year. (Revised April 23, 1981)

D. The regular election of Senators shall be held in April of each year for a term of two calendar years beginning on the first day of the following May. Any vacancy which shall occur in the elected Senate shall be filled in accordance with Article III, Section C, except that in the event of a vacancy among the at-large Senators the President of the Senate may, with the approval of the Senate, appoint a replacement to serve until the next regular election of Senators.

Article IV – Officers of the Faculty Senate

- A. The Senate shall have the following officers: a president, a vice President and, in the absence of an executive secretary, a secretary. The Senate may create whatever other offices it deems appropriate. (Amended January 1989)
- B. The officers of the Senate shall be chosen from and elected by the Senate at the first meeting in May. Their term of office shall be until the first meeting of the following May.
- C. The President of the Senate shall preside at all meetings, call special meetings when he deems it necessary or upon petition of ten (10) members of the Senate, and take such actions as are necessary to expedite the operation of the Senate.
- D. The Vice President of the Senate shall perform all duties of the President in the absence of or during the incapacity of the President.
- E. The Secretary of the Senate, when elected, shall keep accurate minutes of all its regular and special meetings, distribute copies of minutes to appropriate individuals and groups, conduct necessary correspondence, keep an accurate list of its membership and an accurate record of attendance, and perform such other duties as may be appropriate. (Amended January 1989)
- F. An officer of the Senate may be recalled by a two-thirds vote of the whole Senate. A vote to recall must be taken upon presentation to the Secretary of a petition signed by one-fourth of the whole Senate. (Amended January 1989)
- G. In the event of a vacancy in the office of President, the Vice President shall become President. In the event of a vacancy in any other office the Senate shall elect a replacement (it its next regular meeting.

Article V – Committees of the Faculty Senate

- A. The Senate may establish such committees as are necessary to carry out its purposes and responsibilities. All actions of its committees are subject to review by the Senate.
- B. Eligibility for membership on committees of the Senate shall not be limited to the membership of the Senate itself.

Article VI – Operation of the Faculty Senate

- A. Immediately following the election of its officers the Senate shall determine the frequency with which it will meet in regular session during the next year. These meetings will be termed regular meetings and will be held at least once each month during the academic year. At least one week prior to each regular meeting the Executive Secretary of the Senate shall send to each member of the Senate an agenda for the meeting and the minutes of all meetings since the previous agenda was sent. (Amended January 1989)

- B. All meetings shall be open and no voting, except for elections, shall be by secret ballot or voice vote. (Revised April 23, 1982)
- C. Any faculty member, except a member of the Senate, may serve as a substitute for a Senator in any meeting of the Senate. In any one meeting a person may not serve as substitute for two different Senators.
- D. Unless otherwise stated, decisions of the Senate will be by majorities of those members, or their substitutes, who are present and voting. The whole Senate refers to the enfranchised members, or their substitutes, whether present or not. (Amended April 25, 1984)
- E. A quorum shall consist of a majority of the whole Senate.
- F. The most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern the conduct of all business unless other rules are adopted.
- G. The Senate shall be the final authority on any question of interpretation of this Constitution.
- H. At each regular meeting the Vice President of the Senate shall advise the Senate of any Senator who was absent from the three preceding regular meetings provided that the Senator's current term of office includes those meetings. Unless by a majority of the whole Senate it is decided otherwise, the secretary shall notify in writing the Senator (and in the case of departmental Senators, the Senator's department) of this action prior to the next regular meeting. A Senator who, during any one term, is notified in accordance with this provision and following such notification is absent from three regular meetings, shall be informed in writing by the Vice President that he/she will be removed from the Senate unless by a majority of the whole Senate it shall be decided otherwise at the next regular meeting. If a Senator is removed from the Senate under this provision, the Senate, the Senator, and in the case of the departmental Senators, the Senator's department shall be notified in writing. Attendance by a substitute shall be considered as attendance by the member. (Revised April 22, 1980; amended January 1989)
- I. The Executive Secretary of the Senate shall keep accurate minutes of all its regular and special meetings, distribute copies of the minutes to appropriate individuals and groups, conduct necessary correspondence, keep an accurate list of its membership and an accurate record of attendance, and perform such other duties as may be appropriate. (Revised January 1989)

Article VII - Amendments

- A. Proposed amendments to this Constitution must be presented in writing to the Senate during a regular meeting. At a regular meeting held not less than two weeks and not more than six months after this presentation the amendment may be approved by a majority of the whole Senate.
- B. Following the approval of an amendment by the Senate the President of the Senate shall select a date for a secret ballot by the faculty and appoint an ad hoc committee to supervise the balloting.
- C. The balloting shall take place during the same academic year and not more than six weeks after the approval of the amendment by the Senate. Not less than five days prior to the balloting a copy of the amendment and a notice of the time and place of balloting shall be sent to each faculty member.
- D. An amendment shall be in effect immediately upon ratification which shall be by a two-thirds majority of those faculty Members voting.

Article VIII - Ratification, Initial Elections, And Initial Meeting

This Constitution shall be in effect immediately upon ratification by the MSU Faculty Organization. Ratification shall require a two-thirds majority of those voting, in accordance with a procedure approved by the Faculty Organization.

Upon ratification of this Constitution, the chair of the MSU Faculty Organization shall issue a call for the initial election of senators in accordance with Article III, convene the first meeting of the Faculty Senate, and preside until the Senate elects its first president. The requirement in Article III, Section C, that elections occur in April is suspended for the initial election of senators.

6.8     SUBJECT:     MSU STAFF CONGRESS CONSTITUTION

Date Adopted:            October 7, 1983
Reference:                Minute Book: 30           Page: 243

Preamble

In order to more effectively direct the talents, energies, and efforts of the Murray State University staff, to promote better cooperation among the administration, faculty, students, and staff; we, the staff of Murray State University, do establish this representative body to be called the Murray State University Staff Congress. Further, we pledge to determine responsibly and to administer faithfully the policies and objectives which best fulfill the needs, concerns, and interests of the staff and to exert to the utmost our efforts to enhance the University family and help the University achieve its educational goals.

Article I - Name

This organization shall be known as the Murray State University Staff Congress.

Article II - Representation

The Staff Congress represents all staff employees at Murray State University. A staff employee shall be defined as a regular employee who is classified as staff but is not employed in any of the following administration positions (1) President, (2) Provost/Vice President, (3) Associate Provost, (4) Assistant Provost, (5) Vice President, (6) Assistant Vice President, (7) Associate Vice President, (8) Dean, or (9) Assistant Dean.

Article III - Purpose

The Murray State University Staff Congress shall:

1. create a stronger bond within the staff;
2. solicit and express opinions;
3. represent staff concerns; and
4. make suggestions and recommendations for the entire staff on matters of their concern.

The Staff Congress shall make recommendations, when appropriate, to the University administration, the University Staff Regent and the Board of Regents.

Article IV - Membership and Eligibility

Section 1. The Staff Congress shall consist of representatives elected from their respective constituencies by eligible staff members. The constituencies, the date of, and the manner of the elections shall all be determined in the Bylaws of the Staff Congress.

Section 2. The number of representatives shall be prescribed by the formula determined in the Bylaws of the Staff Congress; the total membership of the Staff Congress shall consist of not more than thirty representatives.

Section 3. All regular staff members with a minimum of one year continuous University employment shall be considered eligible to seek election to the Staff Congress, provided they are not an ex-officio member as determined in the Bylaws of the Staff Congress.

Section 4. Representatives shall be elected for a term of three years. Each representative shall retain his Congress seat until an election has been conducted to select a successor and the successor has been seated.

Section 5. Each representative shall have one vote.

Section 6. Any representative may be removed from the membership of Staff Congress for cause (as defined in the Bylaws of Staff Congress) by a two-thirds vote of the Staff Congress.

Article V – Staff Regent

Section 1. The non-teaching personnel of Murray State University shall elect a Staff Regent to the University Board of Regents representing all non-teaching University employees including, but not limited to, building facilities and clerical personnel according to KRS 164.321.

Section 2. Eligibility

Regular Staff Employees, excluding the President, Provost/Vice President, Associate Provost, Assistant Provost, Vice President, Assistant Vice President, Associate Vice President, Dean, and Assistant Dean, who have been employed three consecutive years at Murray State University are eligible.

Section 3. Duties

The Staff Regent described in Section 1 of this Article shall perform the duties determined in the Bylaws of the Staff Congress and such other duties as are designated by the Staff Congress and the Board of Regents.

Section 4. Term of office

The Staff Regent shall be elected to serve a term of three years in the manner determined by the Bylaws of the Staff Congress. The term of office no matter the timing of the swearing in meeting shall begin on July 1 of the year in which an election was held. The Regent shall remain in office until an election to select his/her successor has been conducted and the successor has been seated.

Article VI – Officers

Section 1. The Staff Congress shall elect three officers from its own membership: President of the Murray State University Staff Congress; Vice President of the Murray State University Staff Congress; and Treasurer of the Murray State University Staff Congress.

Section 2. Eligibility

All members duly elected to the Staff Congress shall be eligible for election to the offices described in Section 1 of this Article, and only duly elected members of the Staff Congress may nominate or cast ballots in the election of any office.

Section 3. Duties

The officers described in Section 1 of this Article shall perform the duties determined in the Bylaws of the Staff Congress and such other duties as are designated by the Staff Congress.

Section 4. Term of office

Officers of the Staff Congress shall be elected to serve for a term of one year in the manner determined in the Bylaws of the Staff Congress. Officers shall remain in office until an election to select their successors has been conducted and the successors have been seated.

Section 5. Limitation

No elected Staff Congress member shall hold more than one office at any one time. No officer may be elected to more than two successive terms in the same office. An exception may be made provided no eligible candidate is identified to hold an office. This term then may be extended one year with a 2/3 affirmative vote of the Staff Congress membership.

Section 6. Removal from office

Any officer may be removed from office for cause (as defined in the Bylaws) by a three-fourths vote of the elected Staff Congress members.

Article VII – Meetings

The Staff Congress shall meet regularly at a convenient time and day as determined in the Bylaws of the Staff Congress.

Article VIII – Standing Committees

Standing committees of the Staff Congress shall be established in the Bylaws of the Staff Congress.

Article IX – Quorum

A quorum for conducting all business of the meetings of the Staff Congress within the scope of this Constitution shall be fifty-one percent of the current elected membership.

Article X – Parliamentary Authority

Section 1. The Staff Congress shall be governed by the procedures contained in Robert's Rules of Order (latest revision) in the consideration of all matters properly referred.

Section 2. Any conflict between the source cited in Section 1 of this Article and the Constitution and Bylaws of the Staff Congress shall be resolved in favor of the Constitution.

Section 3. Where necessary and proper, the interpretation and application of the governing procedures outlined in the source cited in Section 1 of this Article shall be the responsibility of the Staff Congress Parliamentarian, who shall be appointed by the President of the Staff Congress.

Article XI – Amendments and Bylaws

Section 1. The Staff Congress shall have the power to enact Bylaws to implement the provisions of the Constitution. Any proposed changes in the Bylaws shall be determined in a manner prescribed in said Bylaws.

Section 2. Any proposal to amend this Constitution shall be submitted by a petition signed by five representatives of the Staff Congress or twenty-five percent of the staff as defined in Article II of this Constitution. Amendment petitions must be submitted to the secretary of Staff Congress at least two weeks prior to said meeting of the Staff Congress.

Section 3. A proposal to amend the Constitution shall be voted on at a regular meeting of the Staff Congress. If the proposal receives an affirmative, two-thirds majority vote from those members present and voting, it shall be placed on the agenda of the next meeting of the Staff Congress for final consideration. The said meeting shall be held within thirty business days of the first reading. Amendments to the Constitution shall be adopted upon an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the total membership of the Staff Congress, subject to approval of the Murray State University Board of Regents.

Article XII- Ratification

This Constitution shall be ratified by a two-thirds vote of the entire elected body of the Staff Congress, subject to the approval of the Murray State University Board of Regents.

PURPOSE:

The purposes of the Student Government Association are to promote the welfare, growth, and development of student life in an environment of academic excellence, to represent the students in all phases of administrative effort, and to provide a means of promoting cooperative efforts for the general welfare of the University community.

Article I – Student Government Association

Section 1. The officially organized body governing all students and student organizations at Murray State University shall be the Student Government Association. The Student Government Association (hereinafter SGA) shall be composed of the Student Senate, the Judicial Board, the Campus Activities Board, the Residential College Association and any other boards as agencies created in accordance with the Bylaws.

Section 2. Any full-time student and any "part-time student" (a part-time student, for the purposes of this Constitution, shall be defined as any student enrolled in 7 to 11 hours for undergraduates or in 5 to 8 hours for graduate students) shall have the privilege of seeking office in any branch of the SGA as prescribed in the Bylaws. "Part-time students" are not eligible to run for or hold Executive Council positions.

Article II – Executive Council

Section 1. The Executive Council of SGA shall be the President/Student Regent, Executive Vice President, Vice President of Administration, Vice President of Finance and the President of the Residential College Association.

Section 2. The President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the SGA. Qualifications for office require one to have attained at least Junior Class standing the Fall semester following the election and to have been a full-time student at the time of election, with a cumulative point standing (hereinafter GPA) of at least 2.7 on the 4.0 system. The President shall maintain such standards during the term of office. The President's duties and powers shall be to serve as President of the Student Senate and to serve as an ex-officio member of all SGA committees, councils and boards.

Section 3. The Executive Vice President, whose qualifications shall be the same as those for President, shall serve as Vice President of the Senate and as Chairman of the Campus Activities Board.

Section 4. The Vice President for Administration of SGA shall serve as the Secretary of the Student Senate and Campus Activities Board and shall be responsible for keeping minutes and attendance of Student Senate and Campus Activities Board meetings. The Vice President for Administration shall be responsible for maintaining all records and documents, other than financial records, of the SGA shall be a full-time student and shall have at least a 2.7 GPA on the 4.0 scale. The office holder shall maintain these standards at the time of election and during the term of office.

Section 5. The Vice President of Finance of SGA shall serve as the Treasurer of the SGA and shall be responsible for maintaining and safeguarding the financial records of the organization, shall be a full-time student and shall have at least a 2.7 GPA on the 4.0 scale. The office holder shall maintain these standards at the time of election and during the term of office.

Section 6. The Residential College Association President shall preside over the Residential College Association (hereinafter RCA) and shall be responsible for communicating Residential College Association concerns to the Executive Council of SGA. The Residential College Association President shall serve as liaison between the SGA, the housing department and the Residential College Councils. The Residential College Association President shall be a full-time student and shall have at least a 2.7 GPA on the 4.0 scale. The office holder shall maintain these standards at the time of election and during the term of office. The Residential College Association President shall be elected during the SGA elections each spring, by a student body vote.

Article III - The Student Senate

Section 1. The Student Senate shall be the governing body of SGA and shall have the power to pass resolutions, bills, rules, and regulations necessary for the general welfare of the University and to implement and maintain any programs consistent with SGA purposes.

Section 2. In order to be a member of the Senate one shall be a full-time student or a "part-time student" of the University and shall maintain at least a 2.5 GPA on a 4.0 scale at the time of election and during the term of office. The "freshman senators" shall, at the time of election, be in their first or second semester at Murray State.

Section 3. The Senate shall be advised by three (3) faculty/staff/administrative members.

Section 4. The Senate shall be composed of the Executive Council of the SGA, three (3) elected senators from each Academic College or School of the University, two (2) "freshman senators," eight (8) senators elected at-large and two (2) senators from each Residential College who, along with the members of the Executive Council, shall have the right to vote. The President of the SGA shall only vote in the case of a tie.

Article IV – The Judicial Board

Section I. The Judicial Board shall have the power to hold hearings and to render decisions and interpretations in cases brought to it by students, faculty or administrators involving the University Code of Conduct or the Constitution of the SGA. It shall have the authority to hear parking/traffic violation appeals.

Section 2. The Judicial Board shall comply with the Kentucky Open Meetings Law, KRS 61.800 et.seq. and shall notify interested parties of their meetings at least one (1) week in advance.

Section 3. The Judicial Board shall be the judicial body of the SGA and shall be composed of seven (7) Justices and three (3) Alternate Associate Justices.

Section 4. The Judicial Board Chief Justice shall serve as Chairperson of the Murray State University Student Judicial Board. The Chief Justice will preside over the Murray State University Student Judicial Board and be responsible for communicating concerns and issues to the Student Government Association Executive Cabinet. The Chief Justice shall serve as a liaison between the SGA, Public Safety and various judicial offices of the University. This position will be selected by the SGA President, then confirmed by the Student Senate from the members selected to serve on the Murray State University Student Judicial Board. The Student Senate must confirm this position annually. The Chief Justice of the Judicial Board will be responsible for a report to the Student Senate each week or following each specially-called Judicial Board hearing.

Section 5. The SGA shall solicit applications for the Judicial Board. The Executive Cabinet shall interview the applicants and the SGA President shall select ten (10) nominees for the seven (7) Associate Justices, three (3) Alternate Associate Justices and from the list of nominations recommending a Chief Justice and an Associate Chief Justice. Upon the nomination from the SGA President, the Senate must confirm the nominees.

Section 6. No member of the Judicial Board shall vote on any question in which he/she has an interest.

Section 7. Structure of the Judicial Board, qualifications of membership, duration of term, specific duties and responsibilities, absences and vacancies, etc. shall be detailed by the Bylaws, otherwise known as the Judicial Board Operating Principles.

Article V. – The Campus Activities Board

Section 1. The purpose of the Campus Activities Board shall be to serve and unify the interests of the students, faculty and staff of MSU and the University service region through co-curricular programming and policy recommendations for the operation of the University Center.

Section 2. Funding for the Campus Activities Board shall be through the accounts of the SGA.

Section 3. Structure of the Campus Activities Board, qualifications of membership, duration of term, specific duties and responsibilities, absences and vacancies, etc. shall be detailed by the Bylaws in accordance with the Campus Activities Board Operating Principles.

Article VI – Residential College Association

Section 1. The Residential College Association shall serve as the voice of the students associated with the Residential Colleges. The organization will maintain its own Bylaws and function to increase communication between residential college students and the SGA.

Section 2. The officers of the Residential College Association shall be the President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer, National Residence Hall Honorary President and the National Association of College and University Residence Halls Communications Coordinator.

Section 3. The membership of the Residential College Association shall be the President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer of the Residential College Association, National Residence Hall Honorary President, the National Association of College and University Residence Halls Communications Coordinator, the President of each Residential College Council as well as two (2) representatives from each residential college.

Section 4. The budget for the Residential College Association shall remain based upon a fee levied on students who live within the Residential Colleges.

Section 5. The individual Residential College Councils shall maintain their autonomy in constitution and in their rights to create policy specific to their Residential Colleges.

Article VII – Voting and Constituencies

Section 1. Any full-time or "part-time" student enrolled in a college shall have the privilege of voting for Senate positions representing that college, all SGA Executive Council positions and at-large Senate positions. Any full-time or "part-time" first or second semester student may have the privilege of voting for the "freshman senators."

Section 2. The primary constituency of SGA Executive Council, at-large Senators and students on the Campus Activities Board shall be full-time and "part-time" students in the University. The primary constituency of a Senator representing a college shall be full-time and "part-time" students in that college. The primary constituency of the "freshman senators" shall be the freshman class.

Article VIII – Removal from Office

Section 1. The Student Senate or the Judicial Board shall have the power to remove from office any member of its respective body for cause by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote.

Section 2. Senators or Executive Council members of the SGA can be recalled on the petition of twenty-five percent (25%) of their respective constituencies, subject to a majority vote of such constituency.

Article IX - Amendments and Bylaws

Section 1. The Student Senate shall have the power to enact Bylaws to implement the provisions of this Constitution.

Section 2. Any proposed changes in the Bylaws shall be endorsed by one-fifth (1/5) of the Senators, and shall require approval by two-thirds (2/3) of the membership of the Senate.

Section 3. Amendments to this Constitution can be proposed by a three-fourths (3/4) majority vote of the Student Senate or by a petition signed by 25% of the total student body. Such amendments shall be ratified by a plurality vote of the student electorate subject to approval of the MSU Board of Regents.

Article X – Ratification

Section 1. This Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of those voting, subject to final approval of the Murray State University Board of Regents.
