

MURRAY STATE UNIVERSITY

College of Education and Human Services

Master of Arts in Education: Reading and Writing (PreK-12)

The Murray State Difference

- Can be completed fully from a distance
- Finish in as little as 2 years
- Receive 1-on-1 guidance from your advisor
- Developed by practitioners for practitioners
- Access to National Board Certified advisors
- Get up to 9 hours of course credit for relevant experience (e.g., NBCT, Reading Recovery Training, Orton-Gillingham Training) with our Prior Learning Assessment

Murray State University

30 credit hours needed
 x $375 per credit hour

$11,250 for entire program

- $1,125 for KRP/ALP credit

- $2,250 for (2) student teacher vouchers

$7,875 or even less!

Online Competitor

$9,700 for entire program

WHAT YOU DO NOW
impacts your annual salary later.

Kentucky Reading Project / Adolescent Literacy Project

Receive one (1) 3-credit-hour tuition waiver for participating.

Student Teacher Vouchers

For each student teacher you host, receive one (1) 3-credit-hour tuition waiver plus a stipend per half-semester.

Contact us today to earn your master's degree and advance your career!

murraystate.edu/literacy

Dr. Chhanda Islam
cislam@murraystate.edu
270-809-6868

Dr. Christina Grant
cgrant4@murraystate.edu
270-809-3115

Ms. Holly Bloodworth
hbloodworth@murraystate.edu
270-809-6177

Dr. Kristina Buttrey
kbuttrey@murraystate.edu
270-809-2537