The Hunt for the Wilderpeople

Dir. Taika Waititi

Based on the novel by Matt de la Peña, The Hunt for the Wilderpeople tells the story of a young boy and girl who find themselves on the run from their abusive foster parents after killing a man for their sick dog. The film is a heartwarming and hilarious adventure that celebrates the power of love and friendship.

Transit Camp Friedland

Dir. Frauke Sandig

Set in a transit camp for refugees in Germany, Transit Camp Friedland explores the experiences of refugees and the challenges they face in navigating a new country. The film offers a poignant and thought-provoking perspective on the global refugee crisis.

This Is Our Land (Chez Nous)

Dir. Lucas Belvaux

A documentary film that explores the rise of far-right politics in France and the impact it has had on the country's cultural and political landscape. The film features interviews with leading figures on the far-right, as well as ordinary people affected by their policies.

Shoplifters

Dir. Kore-Eda with Lily Franky and Sakura Ando.

Based on the novel by the Japanese writer Hideo Atsushi, Shoplifters is a heartwarming and poignant tale of a family of thieves who must navigate the challenges of life outside of society. The film is a powerful exploration of the human spirit and the power of love.

Electric Shadows (梦影童年)

Dir. Xiao Jiang

Set in the remote village of Altiplano in Peru, Electric Shadows is a beautifully filmed story of a young girl who dreams of becoming a filmmaker. The film is a stunning exploration of the power of imagination and the importance of storytelling.

Altiplano

Dir. Peter Brosens, Jessica Woodworth

Based on the true story of a young couple who become involved in the underground film industry in the 1980s, Altiplano explores the challenges of creating art under oppressive regimes. The film is a moving exploration of the power of film to resist and challenge the status quo.

Follow us on: Murray State's webpage under CHFA, Global Languages. The University calendar: http://www.murraystate.edu/calendar Murray State's webpage: www.murraystate.edu Facebook: facebook.com/cinemainternationalmurray/